

Marinka's Week in Review

It's been a quiet time with many staff taking some time-out; Tracy is having a much deserved break; Ben has just returned from an inspiring dive trip to Komodo National Park, Indonesia; Greg has also arrived back from Malaysian Borneo with his group and is madly organising their pictures in order to put on a bit of a slide-show night in the coming weeks, all welcome and we'll confirm the date next newsletter. Rob has his group all organised for their trip to the Yongala, leaving 21st Sep. and back 5 days later.

We have set a date for our 'Big Club Day'! and we are also announcing some VERY exciting trips away so read on!

Hope to see you all getting back in the water!!

Big Club Day

Sunday 14th October, 2007

You have all been very patient over the Winter months so it's with pleasure that we announce our up-and-coming 'Big Club Day'!

Running on Sunday 14/10/07, we would like to invite our keenest boat divers and Grey Nurse shark enthusiasts to join us for a Boat Dive / Shore Dive day being run our friendly staff, instructors and DMs/DCs and servicemen.

The day will include a boat dive to see the Grey Nurse Sharks in Sydney, a mini course on the use of 'safety sausages' followed by a shore dive, and our highly qualified service technician will be available for questions and advice on keeping your gear healthy all year round. Marinka is also promising us a great lunch included!!

Cost: $45 members, $145 non-members
ONLY 45 spots available so that we can ensure proper observation of the regulations set to protect the Grey Nurse Shark habitat.

Contact Marinka@West Ryde to book your spot!

Wreck Diving Course Available

Attention Sydney dive adventurers;

We have 3 positions available on a wreck diving specialty course, being run by Gregory Towner our most experienced instructor (I'm sure you've all have all dived with him at some stage!) . It is being held in Merrimbula, NSW south coast, on 27th and 28th October.

Please express interest via our stores!
